

April 2010 Tiger Talk Newsletter

www.blountstownmiddle.org

BMS Art Show

Blountstown Middle School's Visual Arts students are hosting a spring art show on Tuesday, April 13, 2010 from 5:30 until 7:00 at the Historic M & B Depot, located at the corner of Pear Street and Railroad Avenue. Examples of student art work from throughout the school year will be on display and includes creepy Halloween mobiles, colorful neo-expressionism inspired drawings, other holiday related works as well as several other types of student art. Everyone is invited to attend this event

Tropicana Speech Contest

The school wide Tropicana Speech contest will be held at Blountstown Middle School on Wednesday April 21st. The top finishers then advance to the county competition at 6:00 on Tuesday April 27th in the Blountstown High School Auditorium.

Failure Notices Mailed –April 16th.

BMS Nominated for Sportsmanship Award

The BMS athletic department has been nominated for the FHSAA/Fred E. Rozelle Sportsmanship award. We are sending in our paperwork in hopes of being the overall winner for middle schools throughout the state.

Onion Sale

The annual Vidalia Onion Sale is underway and continues through April 16th. If you are interested in purchasing a 10 pound bag for $10 please see any BMS student or contact the school office at 674-8234.